Madius leads the Corruption-Free Pledge ceremony.

KOTA KINABALU: POIC Sabah Sdn Bhd reaffirmed its commitment to integrity and transparency through a Corruption-Free Pledge ceremony held on Friday.

Its chairman, Datuk Seri Wilfred Madius Tangau, said corruption remains a threat to progress, justice and good governance, and must be rejected at all levels of the organisation.

He said integrity should be strengthened through clear policies, sound governance practices and leadership by example.

Madius also urged employees to report any suspicious conduct through the proper channels and to make ethical decision-making part of their daily responsibilities.
